

Product Snapshot

Fannie Mae HomeReady™

The Fannie Mae HomeReady program offered by Cardinal Financial has a variety of options to help low- to moderate-income borrowers purchase or refinance their home, including flexible income sources and low down payment options. The information in this matrix may not highlight all requirements of the program and does not reduce or eliminate any requirements outlined in our guidelines. Guidelines are subject to change without notice.

This program may be combined with the Fannie Mae Manufactured Home (MH) Advantage and the Fannie Mae HomeStyle Renovation; refer to the Special Program Considerations section for details.

Income Limits	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Qualifying income (income from all borrowers listed on the Note) is used to determine income eligibility limits <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ If an eligible type of income is being used as a source for qualifying income, it should be calculated in accordance with the applicable Fannie Mae guidelines for that income type.</li> <li>○ It is not permissible to use only a "portion" or "reduced amount" of that income for determination of HomeReady eligibility as it relates to the AMI limits.</li> <li>○ If the income is determined to be a stable source of income and used for qualifying purposes, the full amount of the income determined for qualifying income would be considered in the AMI limitation.</li> <li>○ Not ALL sources of borrower income are required to be included in the HomeReady eligibility determination. But if it is being used, the above guidance must be followed. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ For example, if the borrower can qualify for the mortgage with their base pay and not their overtime income, you may use only the base pay to determine HomeReady eligibility.</li> </ul> </li> </ul> </li> <li>• Fannie Mae's HomeReady Income Eligibility Lookup must be used to determine HomeReady income limits by census tract. The census tract can be found on the appraisal or by using the FFIEC Census Tract Lookup</li> <li>• Income may not exceed 80% of Area Median Income for properties on all census tracts</li> <li>• DU will provide income eligibility based on the property address input in DU.</li> <li>• AMIs will be applied in DU based on the casefile creation date. DU will apply 2025 limits to new DU loan casefiles created on or after May 18th, 2025. Loan casefiles created prior to May 18, 2025 will continue to use 2024 limits</li> <li>• To align more closely with the DU implementation, and to ensure loans are not affected by AMI limits that decreased in 2025, Fannie Mae will use the Application Received Date provided in Loan Delivery (Sort ID 224) to determine</li> </ul> which AMI limit to use when evaluating eligibility waiver. Loans with Application Received Dates prior to May 18 will use the 2024 AMI limits, and loans with Application Received Dates on and after May 18 will be subject to the 2025 AMI limits for the purpose of applying the waiver
